25X1A

1. This is to advise you that the above employee arrived at a foreign post on 12 November 1958 where a 10 per cent salary differential is applicable. It is expected that this employee will remain at this post differential station in excess of 60 days.

2. Through an oversight and due to the fact that this individual was stationed temporarily at a non-ten per cent salary differential station before entering this station, this information was not sent you previously and is regretted by this office. Should it be necessary to communicate with us concerning this individual, please make reference to message number 7330 dated 17 April 1959.
